MASONS BURNED OUT

The Scottish Rite Building at Indianapolis Burns.

It Was the Finest of the Kind in the Country.

INVALUABLE PAPERS.

Documents Were Lost That Can Never be Replaced.

Masonic Collection of 1,000 Photographs Lost.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3. — The most disastrous fire that has occurred in this city for several years broke out shortly after 8 o'clock this morning in the building owned and occupied by the Indianapolis Natural Gas company at South Pennsylvania and Maryland streets. The building, which was the largest of its kind in the country and its original cost was $100,000. Recently $25,000 additional improvements had been made.

At 4:30 the walls of the Scottish Rite building fell in carrying with them to destruction documents of an invaluable character and which can never be replaced even at any cost. By 5 o'clock the gas company building, the medical college which was a contiguous part of the same and the Scottish Rite building were a smouldering pile of debris. A fireman named Samuel Miller, fell from the third floor to the street, being seriously injured. Fire Chief Webster was also injured on the arm by falling bricks.

The total loss will amount to little over $300,000. The gas company's loss is $80,000; insurance $21,000. The medical college loss is $85,000, fully insured. Scottish Rite loss is $100,000 with insurance of about $75,000. Among the valuable Masonic matter destroyed in the Scottish Rite building were the Harker Library, the finest in the world, and the Masonic collection of one thousand photographs.

In falling the buildings covered several small buildings, including the plumbing store of Clark & Sons, whose loss is $50,000, with no insurance, and a book store, the loss on which is unknown. Besides this, $10,000 damage was done to surrounding property. At 7:30 the fire had burned itself out. There were eight human bodies in the medical college, all of which were cremated.

MARTIN BURLESQUED.

The Senator Will Be Represented Trying to Hide Two Horses.

There will be a number of striking facts in the Republican caucus tonight. One of them will be an old Irish horse and a dilapidated mule with their hands and tails tied together. They will represent "fusion." The figure in a pling hat with one foot on each horse will be labeled "Senator John Martin."

Then there will be a stuffed figure of a man with Fred Closs and Attorney General Lupton pulling desperately at either leg. The figure will be labeled "Peter W. Kline."

Beyond comparison Dr. Price's Baking Powder is the favorite.

An Old Man Confessed.

A confidence man worked an old man on the west bound Santa Fe train yesterday for $10. It was all the money the old man had and the scheme was the old freight racket. There were goods the confidence man had to pay freight on and he needed just $10. They were both going to Reno county where the confidence man was a merchant in Hutchinson. He got off the train at the Missouri Pacific junction. The confidence man was about forty years old, five feet, eight or nine inches high and wore a brown overcoat. There is no further clue to him.
